A CERTIFICATE COURSE ON
Making Of Puppets-STRING PUPPETS
FROM 1-12-2018 TO 11-1-2019

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

- To motivate the students
- To teach language
- to create interaction between the teacher and the taught.
- To add fun in teaching learning
- To have an element of surprise into the play and learning activities.

SYLLABUS:

Unit-1- What is puppetery? Meaning and types -Learning in an unconstructive and non-threatening manner.

Unit-2- Types of string puppets- India has a rich and ancient tradition of string puppets. Kathputli – Rajasthan. These are carved from a single piece of wood and are colourfully dressed in Rajasthani style of clothing.

Kundhei – Orissa. The string puppets of Orissa are made up of light wood and are dressed in long flowy skirts. The costumes of Kundhei resemble those worn by actors of the Jatra traditional theatre. The music is often drawn from the popular tunes of the region and also are inspired by Odissi.

Gombeyata – Karnataka. The dolls resemble the characters of Yakshagana- the regional traditional theatre form.

Bommalattam – Tamil Nadu-These are a combination of string and rod puppets. The dolls are made of wood and strings. The strings are tied to an iron ring which the artist wears on his head.
