- Practice teaching/ Internship in schools- The students of the B.Ed. course are sent to different schools of twin cities for their practice teaching. The schools are identified depending on the residence of the students. After identification of schools, permission is taken from the State District Education Officer to send the students for practice teaching. Depending on the strength of the school, number of trainee teachers are allotted. Letters are sent to the schools and permission is sought. After the school gives permission, the trainees are sent for practice teaching.
